

Use Case	Add Two Numbers
Summary	The user adds two numbers on the calculator.
Actor	User
Trigger	None
Primary Scenario	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The user enters a number (A) by clicking the digit ('0'-'9') and decimal point ('.') buttons. The number is displayed. 2. The user clicks the '+' button. The number remains unchanged on the display. 3. The user enters a second number (B) by clicking the digit ('0'-'9') and decimal point ('.') buttons. The number is displayed. 4. [The user clicks another operator button. See Can Chain Multiple Operators Use Case Description.] 5. The user clicks the '=' button. 6. The correct total (A+B) from the addition of the two numbers is displayed.
Alternative Scenario	None
Exceptional Scenario	None
Pre-Conditions	The calculator is in its initial state (or just cleared).
Post-Conditions	None
Assumptions	None